THE BEST LATIN GRAMMAR

THE FIRST YEAR OF LATIN

By Walter B. Gunnison, Ph. D. and Walter S. Harley, A. M., of the Erasmus Hall High School, Brooklyn. Price $1.00.

BASED on the War with the Helvetii and using Caesar's vocabulary throughout, this text-book fits the pupil to master the meaning, form and use of the words to be met in his second year of Latin. It presents the fundamental principles of grammar clearly and logically, laying stress only upon the details which are of real value.

RITCHIE'S FABULAE FACILES.

A first Latin Reader. Thoroughly revised and rewritten by John C. Kirtland, Jr., Professor of Latin, Phillips Exeter Academy. 12mo, 150 pages, with notes, a vocabulary, and illustrations. 75 cents.

THE HEAD MASTER OF THE ROXBURY LATIN SCHOOL recently wrote the following letter to the Editor.

"Dear Mr Kirtland:

I have spent a pleasant half hour in looking through your edition of FABULAE FACILES, and with the conviction that all beginners of Latin will owe you a debt for making available in delightful and useful form the best material I know of for first reading in Latin.

I have spent a great deal of time in trying to make the first steps in Latin less difficult and discouraging, and I rejoice that you have done so good a piece of work to the same end.

Nov. 1, 1903.

Sincerely yours, Wm. C. Collar.
